ST. DAVID'S CATHEDRAL : From ear y British times, a Church stood on the site of this Cathedral. The first was destroyed in 645, another in 1088, while a third was pulled down in 1180, when the present Cathedral was begun by Bishop Peter de I eia. The total length of St. David's Cathedral is 298 feet, the Nave is 68 feet wide, and the interior contains some unique carving, and many fine monuments. It is named after St. David, the patron saint of Wales, who lived about the fifth Century, and of whom many legends and miracles are recorded.
